During this long life of mine,

up until now,

there hasn't been

anyone more suitable to be my companion than you.

I promise you,

I will give you anything you desire.

Thus, Alice,

to me.

please give your-self

Chapter 70: I Suppose It's Almost Time We End Things, Hm?

Tajima-
san,

.....

I-

I...

what you're talking about!

I don't get

and took everything away from me.

deceived me, bullied me, harassed me,

my father,

You killed my mother,

some-one like you

Why would

in the first place!?

accept me

killer.

You are a born

Alice.

You misunder-stand me,

and, eventually,

cursed everyone around you.

chances are, you would have ended up hating your mother and father

Even if I hadn't taken anything away

pushed everyone away.

You personally

No-

no way...

That's just how you are.

Even you realize it, don't you?

That's impossible.

Such a thing...

inside your mind,

Even now,

16 times.

you've killed me

I can see through all of your thoughts.

However,

is your word.

what I want

will become one, single, indistinguishable existance.

you and I

As long as you demonstrate your intent to "become Suzume-bachi" in words,

I don't care what motives you have.

or...

accept me, and rise to the summit,

You have two choices:

Now, choose.

die here.

I think I'd dive towards the illogical choice.

Even if I say so myself,

How-ever,

.....

every-thing ends

if you don't do that,

if we're negligent, the world could-

let alone this country,

If the infectious spread of the Army Ants isn't controlled,

and a new Suzumebachi is welcomed.

I don't care.

and thinking about what'll happen to the world...

Figuring out who you are,

I don't care about any of those.

or any-thing

I won't allow anyone

choosing to die here,

Right now,

away from me.

to take my freedom

the world,

Even if it was our country,

or even my friends,

To those ends, if necessary,

I have no choice
but to kill them.

Life

are all qualities of life.

Including life and death, the determination for freedom

strictly survival.

The only species in the world

Life, in essence, is simply, truthfully speaking, no more than a "phenomenon."

are human beings.

and stubbornly refuses freedom

and clings onto life while fearing death

that seeks a meaning in life which likely doesn't exist

You're powerful, you know?

I couldn't give a shit either.

Frankly, for a world like this,

I simply beautiful as well.

And,

the remainder of my life with you.

wanted to spend

Farewell,

Alice.

of light.

A single glimpse

Fang,

with the remainder of my power within you,

somehow...

and exhaust all of my power.

I'll aim towards that spot

Reach them!

Find them!

capture their presense!

And

Hm?

What happened just now?

Why did a corpse-

an arachnid that can fire at prey

using only the slightest amount of light.

There exists

This arachnid, which inhabits the jungles of South America or Africa, possesses two enormous eyes, as the name states.

Deinopidae, known as the "Eyeball Arachnid" in Japan.

it captures it from above with a net

the instant prey passes over and covers the light.

Using the light that bounces off of its feces as a mark,

The Deinopidae hunts in the darkness.

If we were to derive an F number designating its lens speed,

However, what should be feared is the efficiency of its lens.

An F-number (or F-stop) refers to the width of a lens, which affects how much light passes through. Lower numbers mean more light, and 0.58 is VERY LOW, allowing in a lot of light. A lens with a low F-stop is said to be "fast," meaning the amount of time required to expose the sensor in the camera is low, resulting in a FAST shutter-speed.

it can obviously kill in even the darkest of darkness.

This means that it is 0.58.

This excels above other noctural animals and manmade technologies.

It's an astonishing amount,

only true assassins could possess.

It is an existence bearing knowledge
